

Parent Council AGM – Chair's Report

David Maclure
30 September 2013

What is the Parent Council?

- ▶ “Parents want the best for their children. Parent Councils are a chance for parents to get involved and do what they can to help their school be the best it can be. It can be hard work and time consuming, but it is worth it. Our children deserve no less and we know that everyone can benefit when we get the partnership between schools and parents working well.”
- ▶ Iain Ellis, Chair, NPF Scotland
